Position Description:

- Advise individuals during new student orientation (for both freshman and transfers) and the academic year and assist with semester registration.
- Provide outreach and services for academic advising programs for new freshman from high school.
- Assist with program development and coordination for major and career exploration for both first-year and deciding/undecided students.
- Develop and maintain academic/major and career decision-making communication and resources for students in both print and electronic formats.
- Attend and participate in designated advisor development and planning meetings/activities.

Office of Academic Advising Overview

- The Office of Academic Advising is part of the Academic Affairs Division providing services to assist students in achieving personal, academic, and career goals at UNI.
- The Office focuses on student populations in transition - first year students, students exploring major options or “deciding” students, students seeking alternate majors, and students reassessing their current academic situation (e.g. students re-admitted after suspension and students on academic warning or probation).
- Our mission is to help students clarify life / educational goals, utilize both on- and off-campus resources, select appropriate coursework and other educational opportunities, and assist in resolving academic difficulties.
- In addition, the Office of Academic Advising coordinates undergraduate academic advising for all new student orientations and campus-wide advising events, as well as promoting and developing academic advising resources for both students and faculty / staff academic advisors participating in the Intake Model.
- More information about the services, programs/events, and resources provided by the office of Academic Advising for both students and university faculty and staff can be found at http://www.uni.edu/advising

Qualifications:

- Must be a full-time, degree-seeking student in a UNI graduate program.
  - Postsecondary Education / Student Affairs graduate program is preferred.
- Must be enrolled in 9 graduate credits each semester of assistantship.
- Maintain a Plan and cumulative GPA of at least 3.00. First semester graduate students must have an undergraduate GPA of at least 3.00.
- Must have prior undergraduate experience at the University of Northern Iowa as either an Office of Academic Advising Peer Academic Advisor in Residence (PAIR) or as a Summer Orientation Staff member. For a student who does not possess such experience, they can choose to meet this requirement through a Summer Orientation and New Student Registration practicum with the Office of Academic Advising prior to the start date of the graduate assistant experience.

- Please note: The nature of this position requires prior experience in academic advising related opportunities at the University of Northern Iowa or equivalent training to provide quality and accurate information as well as meet the expectations for academic advising by undergraduate students.

- Candidate should possess excellent oral and written communication skills, strong interpersonal and organization skills, and a demonstrated ability to be self-motivated and to conduct oneself in a professional manner.
- Individual should have a strong interest in academic advising and working with first-year students as a future career direction.
