Office of Academic Advising Overview:

- The Office of Academic Advising is part of the Academic Affairs Division providing services to assist students in achieving personal, academic, and career goals at UNI.
- The Office focuses on student populations in transition - first year students, students who are declared as exploratory / deciding, students changing majors or seeking alternate majors, and students reassessing their current academic situation (e.g. students re-admitted after suspension and students on academic warning or probation).
- Our mission is to help students clarify life / educational goals, utilize both on- and off-campus resources, select appropriate coursework and other educational opportunities, and assist in resolving academic difficulties.
- In addition, the Office of Academic Advising coordinates undergraduate academic advising for all new student orientations and campus-wide advising events, as well as promoting and developing academic advising resources for both students and faculty / staff academic advisors participating in the Intake Model.
- More information about the services, programs/events, and resources provided by the office of Academic Advising for both students and university faculty and staff can be found at <https://advising.uni.edu/>

Qualifications:

- Must be a full-time, degree-seeking student in a UNI graduate program.
 - Postsecondary Education / Student Affairs, Communication, English, and Curriculum and Instruction graduate programs are preferred.
- Must be enrolled in 9 graduate credits each semester of assistantship.
- Maintain a UNI cumulative graduate GPA of at least 3.00. A newly admitted graduate student must have at least a 3.0 GPA for undergraduate or previous graduate work of at least 8 graded credit hours.
- Candidate should possess excellent written communication skills, strong interpersonal and organization skills, and a demonstrated ability for attention to detail, to be self-motivated and creative, and to conduct oneself in a professional manner.
- Prior experience in publication and/or web-development, as well as the design and implementation of programming is preferred.
