

MUSIC

University of Northern Iowa College of Humanities, Arts & Sciences

<https://music.uni.edu/>

ABOUT THE MAJOR

People choose to major in music for many different reasons, but the primary motivation is usually due to a passion for making music in some capacity. Whether it be through the playing of an instrument, voice, or composition, inspiring people through performance and teaching can be a life-changing experience for all involved. A degree in music involves the study of music theory, music history, participation in ensembles, and applied lessons.

SAMPLE COURSEWORK

Piano Proficiency	History of Music I: Antiquity through Renaissance
Aural Training I, II, III	Studies in Performance Seminar
Music Theory I, II, III	Analysis of Music
Sight Singing I, II, III

POSSIBLE CAREERS *some titles may require further education

Music Therapist	Sound Technician	Event Manager	Director
Musician	Film/Video Broadcasting	Tutor	Theatre Stage Manager
Private Music Teacher	Arts Administrator	Professor	Voice Coach
Secondary School Teacher	Community Arts Teacher	Radio Producer	Choir Director

UNI GRADUATES: WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

- Heartland Presbyterian Church
- Joyful Noise Studio
- Ankeny School District
- Good Night Music
- University of St. Francis
- Hudson Community Schools
- Catamount Recording
- Waukee Community School District
- Music Education Magic
- Sounds Heal Studio
- Trinity Lutheran Church
- Harmony School of Music, Inc.
- West Music Company
- Waterloo Schools
- Reiman Music
- Chicago College of Performing Arts
- Waverly Health Center

SKILLS NEEDED

- Active listening
- Creativity
- Responsibility
- Ability to work independently and on a team
- Ability to perform in front of others
- Ability to think in patterns
- Time management
- Aural skills

HOLLAND CODES

AES